RE: Wu v. GSX Techedu Inc., 20-cv-4457 (ES) (CLW) (D.N.J.)

Dear Judge Salas:

On behalf of Defendant GSX Techedu, Inc. ("GSX"), we respectfully write, pursuant to Rule II(E)(iii) of Your Honor's Individual Practices, to request that the Court so-order the enclosed stipulation and proposed order extending GSX's deadline to answer, move against or otherwise respond to the complaint until after a lead plaintiff has been appointed in this putative securities class action. Because this action asserts claims under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, it is subject to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which, among other things, provides for the appointment of a lead plaintiff and lead counsel to act on behalf of the putative class. See 15 U.S.C. § 77u-4(a)(3). Motions for appointment of lead plaintiff are due on or before June 16, 2020. We anticipate that lead plaintiff, once appointed, may want to file an amended complaint. We have conferred with Plaintiff Wu's counsel, who agrees that it would be more efficient to extend GSX's time to respond until after a lead plaintiff has been appointed. This is the first request for an extension.

Respectfully,

/s/ Scott D. Musoff
